P2PM December 2013

What a fall it has been! There have been so many blessings, and opportunities to serve the Lord that it is nearly impossible to capture it in words. Please allow me to try to communicate it best I can.

- The P2P Trustees requested help with expenses related to Mona's illness and death. The response has been more than I could have imagined, and now things are under control. THANK YOU!!!!!!!!!!!!
- Property has been purchased for housing our additional caretaker
- George Al-Salty is working alongside P2P
- P2P worked with the most successful Restoration Destination Myrtle Beach to date
- Another Restoration Destination has been started in MO, and I was invited to speak
- I was asked to speak at the National Prayer Clinic
- Our 7th mission trip to Australia occurred Nov. 19 – Dec. 17.
- THANK YOU Hillsboro Church of Christ for making this trip possible

Looking ahead to January I anticipate one of the best Church Leaders Seminars we have ever hosted. Please contact the office if you have not registered. We also have a terrific Spring Class planned. Tom Claibourne will be teaching. Please check out the details elsewhere in this newsletter.

Finally, let me say THANK YOU one more time for how you have shown your love and concern to me. God has been so good to me to surround me with people who genuinely care for me. You have supported me emotionally, spiritually, and financially. Your cards, emails, phone calls, Facebook messages, invitations to meals, and all of the other things you have done for me mean more than I can say. God has used you to bless me, and I praise Him.

Pray for me and P2P. A new year is dawning. Let us seek God to make it the best He has given us so far.

Kerry

GEORGE AL-SALTY CONNECTS WITH P2PM

George Al-Salty, Executive Director of SALT, is now an Associate Evangelist with Person to Person. George is a native Middle Easterner, and is working to establish the Lord's church in every Arab state.

George informed P2P early this fall that he needed a new sponsor to keep his visa current. After investigation by the Trustees it was agreed for P2P to be George's sponsor. We are happy to have him conduct his ministry in concert with us, and we encourage the brotherhood to allow him to share his work and the message of Christ.

George also provides workshops about Islam and missions in the Arab world. For more details, please contact him at www.SALTimpact.org.

BREAKING NEWS

Our neighbor to the immediate south of the main entrance to Restoration Acres approached P2P about purchasing his property. In view of the arrival of our additional caretaker next year, the Person to Person Trustees decided at their October meeting to make this purchase. Details are below:

- 4.94 acres
- 2 bedroom, 1 bath house (includes stove, refrigerator & dishwasher)
- 32' x 46' outbuilding
- Purchase price $74,500.00

With $20,000.00 toward housing already planned in the 2013-14 Capital Campaign this purchase provides us the best value at the most affordable price. We trust God will quickly supply the remaining balance as people learn of this acquisition.

The bulk of the Capital Campaign for 2013-14 focuses on items to help us with the campground.

The following list identifies the projects we desire to complete as God supplies our needs.

1. Acquire living quarters for an additional caretaker. P2P has a man willing to come and work here if we will only provide a place to live. Our Caretaker, Jim Schwab, is 80 years old, and the additional resident help will be invaluable. ($20,000.00)
2. Purchase a stump grinder ($5,000.00)
3. Technological Upgrades ($6,500.00)
4. New Camera for Media Ministry ($3,500.00)
5. Purchase chairs for children's sessions ($3,500.00)
6. Enclose a couple of bays at workshop pole barn for equipment storage ($1,500.00)

Total goal $40,000.00
